

Show the World... What a Cookie Can Do

This year, we are calling all Girl Scouts to show the world what your cookie can do! For example: What if a girl could gather 100 people to do good things in her local or global community? What if she could make possible the donation of 100 packages to an organization in need? What if she could use $100 of her cookie proceeds to make her world a better place? Individual girls K–12 are encouraged to share their cookie's story with us through film, literature, photography, drawing, painting, collage, or photo diary for the opportunity of a lifetime—a trip to Savannah, Georgia!
